

Report on AstraZeneca offences and fines

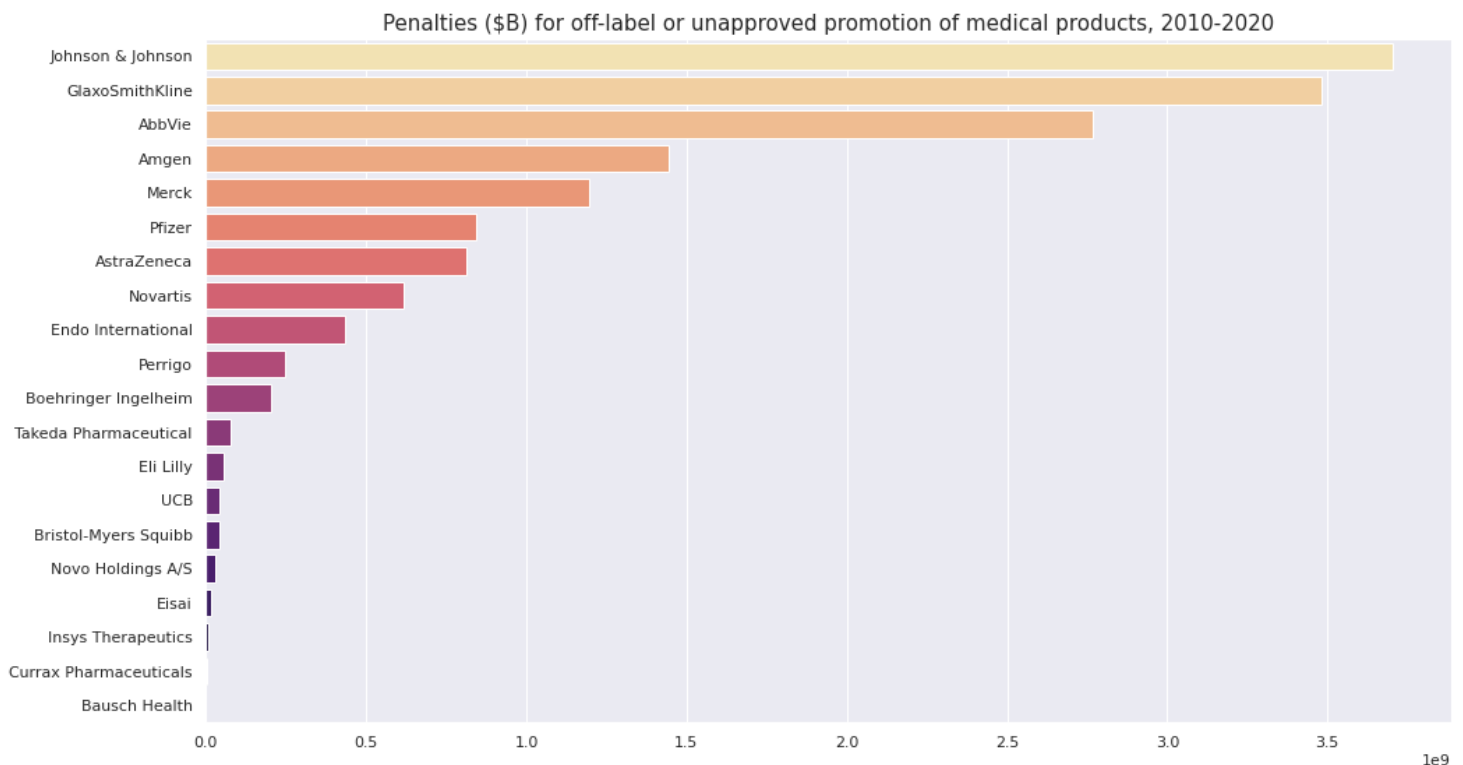

Data is taken from Violation Tracker (<https://violationtracker.goodjobsfirst.org>) which is an online database of regulatory violators and lawbreakers throughout the United States.

Violation Tracker Parent Company Summary

Parent Company Name: AstraZeneca
Ownership Structure: publicly traded (ticker symbol AZN)
Headquartered in: United Kingdom
Major Industry: pharmaceuticals
Specific Industry: pharmaceuticals
Penalty total since 2010: $1.04B
Number of records: 21

Comparison to other offenders found in the Violation Tracker database.

1. Penalties for off-label or unapproved promotion of medical products

Only six companies (out of 65 parent pharmaceutical companies found in the Violation Tracker database) were penalised with higher amounts than AstraZeneca, but only one (Amgen) is of the same size as AstraZeneca (by revenue 2019), others are considerably bigger.

2. Penalties for kickbacks and bribery

AstraZeneca is among only eleven companies fined for kickbacks and bribery from year 2010 out of 65 other offenders in pharmaceuticals industry (parent companies) found in the Violation Tracker database.

3. Penalties for consumer protection violation

AstraZeneca is among only nine companies fined for consumer protection violation from year 2010 out of 65 other offenders (parent companies) in pharmaceuticals industry found in the Violation Tracker database.

4. Penalties defined in False Claims Act and related offences

AstraZeneca is among many other companies fined for False Claims Act related offences (13th from the top).

